

PAVILION SERIES CLASSES

Where: Douglas County Master Gardener Discovery Garden Pavilion
River Forks Drive, Roseburg, Oregon

When: The third Thursday of each month – February through October
Second class in October: Growing Garlic & Shallots, October 3rd

---

February 15th: “Pepper Seeding” with Master Gardener Bruce Gravens

March 21st: “Starting Tomatoes” with Master Gardener Bruce Gravens

April 18th: “Up-potting Tomatoes and Peppers” with Master Gardener Bruce Gravens

May 16th: “Veggies From Seeds to Weeds” with Master Gardener and organic farmer Jim Leet

June 20th: “Composting” with Logan Bennett, OSU Extension, Master Gardener Coordinator

July 18th: “Spice up your Life!”
Preserving and cooking with herbs with Denise Fennell, Chef

August 15th: “Soil Blocking” with Cindy Gingham, owner of Happy Hills Homestead flower farm, Cottage Grove.
Cindy will share a great method for seed starting that saves space, reduces use of peat moss and grows sturdy plants.

September 19th: “Managing Vertebrate Pests” with Master Gardener Leo Grass.
“Insects in your Garden” with Master Gardener Diana Woodward

October 3rd: “Ward off Vampires!”
Learn to grow Garlic & Shallots with Master Gardener Bruce Gravens

October 17th: “Pesticide Usage” with Logan Bennett, OSU Extension, Master Gardener Coordinator. Logan will talk about when and what to spray for pests and how to safely use pesticides.